No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true
Arise and defend it! you sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

Wholly on the Side of Treason

Nothing more distinctly proves the sympathy which exists between and binds together the Peace Democrats of the North and the Rebel Democrats of the South, than the constant and bitter opposition of the former to every measure adopted by the Government to recover its lawful authority in every State of the Union. Just now they are wildly furious about the Amnesty plan, and talk as though the rebellion, if not right, was simply a mistake, and its leaders deserved pity as friends, rather than punishment as criminals. The Government is abused as the wrong doer, while the traitors are generally described as persecuted men seeking their rights and simply desiring to be "let alone." The pretended atrocities are always dwelt upon, but no complaint is made of rebel barbarities. The punishment of treason is intolerable, cruel and unlawful while not a word is said about the brutal murder of loyal men, and families whose only offence was patriotism. The proposed pardon is declared to be an insult, because it is offered upon certain conditions, and the Democratic party is doing its utmost to induce rebels to pay no attention to it, but to continue their wicked hostility. The power and the right of the Government to make its own terms with those who have violated its laws are denied and according to Democracy, the whole Union ought to yield to the demands of Davis and his lawless insurgents. No sensible man can deny that the rebellion is a crime. Its actors and movers are criminals, who have done the worst deed known to humanity—a deed, deserving the heaviest, the most merciless punishment. The Government is forced by their own action to deal with them as enemies, and it is not for them to say what course shall be pursued for the vindication of the Constitution and the laws, which they have wantonly broken. A pardon, which they had no right to claim or to expect has been offered, instead of utter destruction which their crimes have provoked. It is an act of mercy rather than of vengeance, and yet it is denounced by men, who at one moment will resolve that they are patriotic, and at the next, will declare that the Government has no right to punish traitors or to require them to swear that in consideration of pardon for past offences, they will not for the future violate the laws of the land. Truly, this class of Northern Democrats are not a whit behind their Southern brethren in crime, in treason or in all that makes unlawful hostility and disobedience to the Government.

FROM CHINA—THE ALABAMA.—The following is from a private letter dated Hong Kong, January 11th:

The pirate Alabama recruited at Singapore from the 21st to the 28th of December, and sailed to renew her depredations in the Straits of Malacca. I am informed she bought all the warm clothing obtainable at Singapore, and it may be inferred that she will soon make her appearance upon the coast of China. She found at Singapore all the aid, assistance and supplies she required, besides the compliments, congratulations of her Majesty's faithful subjects residing in the colony. She will doubtless meet the same in Hong Kong, and at present we know of no means of checking the course of the pirate, who is well advised of every sign of danger from the only American vessel of war out here, the Wyoming.

The following is a portion of the statement of Samuel B. Pike, captain of the British ship Marlaban:

Capt. Semmes, when he boarded me, came into my cabin. I asked him to be seated. He replied "I shall sit down," and demanded to see my papers. I handed him my register—a register emanating from the British authorities at Maulmain—which he sneeringly read, repeating aloud the name of the owner, Mark Riddell Carrie, of Maulmain, a British subject, and also the date of execution. Turning to me said "I am not to be humbugged with any sham papers. You ought to have some certificate of sale," and some document which I don't remember, immediately adding "I shall burn your ship." I protested against this decision, stating that my papers were regular and were positive proof of the nationality of my ship. Paying no attention to this, he then, with the register in his hand, directed his officers to burn the vessel, and immediately left the ship.

Well, if ships must be burned by this infamous pirate, we are not sorry that those which sail under the English flag suffer a good share of the atrocious wickedness of the freebooter. After a while, John Bull will get his hide warmed, and begin to feel that the fire hurts. In the mean time, we hope that the active Navy Department of our Government will think it expedient to put one or two of its spare war steamers somewhere within a thousand miles of the Alabama's cruising grounds. She has been there for nearly six months, and only the Wyoming is on guard. We do not admire that kind of vigilance.

UNHAPPY TOPERS IN DIXIE.—In the South they sell brandy for $3 without, or $3 50 with sugar, per drink. A drink is about a table spoonful. Perhaps, however, they may receive some consolation from the following item that is going the rounds of the Eastern papers:

Whisky and brandy can now be made out of coal gas which consists of carbon and hydrogen, as does alcohol with the addition of oxygen. For several years past the process of converting oleifiant gas into spirit has been talked of but now a French patent has been obtained for the purpose and sold to a company in London. You take away one half the hydrogen and add a little oxygen, and presto! you have a bottle of brandy.

NEW YORK, March 17.—A New York Central Assembly has passed an address to the people of Virginia stating that submission to the enemy who has exhausted every arm is not to be entertained, even though urged by their avowed efforts to victory. The story of Kilpatrick's raid is told with as much incentive to exertion. One more resolute effort and it says the day is ours.

The Richmond Examiner reports the Federals retiring from Knoxville.

NEW YORK, March 17.—A terrific explosion of the Ice Company's Cartridge Manufactory, Springfield, Mass., took place yesterday afternoon, four persons instantly killed, were employed in the building, seven of whom are so much injured that they cannot recover.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The President has signed the Gold bill.

In the contested case of Loan and McClurg the committee were equally divided and the chairman decided against them on the ground that the election should be held under military control. Hence the case will be reported back to the House as a case in which no one is entitled to an official certificate of election. On Monday a report will be submitted in favor of Loan and McClurg. It is thought they will convince the House of the lawfulness of their election.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Gen. Grant issued General Order No. 1 to-day assuming command of the armies of the United States. He says: My headquarters will be in the field until further orders with the Army of the Potomac. There will be no office of head quarters at Washington, to which all official communications will be sent except those from the army at whose headquarters I am at the date of this address.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The enabling bill passed by the House yesterday for Nevada, Colorado and Nebraska requires their election of delegates to a Convention which shall submit a Constitution agreed upon to the people for ratification at an election to be held on the 2d Tuesday of October. The Constitutions shall be of republican form not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States and the principles of the Declaration of Independence. Slavery shall be prohibited therein by ordinance, forever irrevocably, without the consent of Congress. Whenever the Constitution is ratified by the people, the President is to declare by proclamation the admission of those States on an equal footing with the original States. Each State shall be entitled to one member of the House until next apportionment and two Senators.

After the passage of a bill for the temporary Government of Montana Territory, the House went into committee of the whole on a bill appropriating $240,000 for public buildings.

Kinney was in favor of admitting Utah as a State, referring to the patriotism and position of that Territory, without action the committee arose.

Hosmer Foss, former Chief of the Fire Department, was buried to-day in grand style.

Lane County Union Convention.

EUGENE, March 19.—The Lane County Union Convention was held to-day and the following resolution were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the cardinal principles of the Union party of Lane County are those propelled by the founders of our Government, to wit: all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with the right of self government; and were given dominion over all the earth; that all men are by nature free; that these rights are inalienable; and that the highest object of the Government should be to secure them.

Resolved, That, we have an abiding faith, that under the guidance of Providence and through our form of Government, the American people are destined to work out and establish practically the problem of man's capability for self government.

Resolved, That our Government is not a compact between States to be broken by the will or pleasure of one or more of them, but in the language of the Constitution was ordained and established by "we the people" in order to form a more perfect Union, to establish justice, and insure domestic tranquility.

Resolved, That the present armed rebellion of the States authorities against the National Government is not by reason against the supreme liberty of the Nation, but is treason against the rights and liberties of man, and that every necessary power may be safely resorted to to crush out the present rebellion and whatever the Executive and Legislative branches of the Nation find necessary to employ to maintain the institutions, laws and liberties of the people is Constitutional and lawful.

Resolved, That we hail in the executive head of the Nation a man of upright integrity and wisdom, the man of all others most entitled and best qualified for the high trust conferred upon him, and as the tried and redeemed of his past acts and words, he is leading for his country in this hour of trial, we pledge him our unconditional and individual support for re-election to the presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That we do not, by pledging ourselves to support and to advance the election of the nominees of this Convention to the utmost of our ability.

The following nominations were made viz: For State Senator, S. R. Cranston; for Representative, J. B. Underwood, G. Callison, A. McCormack; for County Clerk, A. A. Skinner; for Treasurer, J. G. Gray; Sheriff, W. H. Bailey.

For Delegates to State Convention, T. J. Pengra, B. Woloson, M. Wilkins, S. S. Saul, r, A. S. Howes, N. Humphrey, J. H. D. Henderson, James H. McFarland.

RIOTERS.—On Friday morning a couple of "pets" broke loose in the Dalles creating quite a consternation. It seems they had been running all night on a drunken spree, and were about down to the "bed rock" for change when they attacked a man on the street for four bits demanding him to "shell out before they would "blow the top of his head off." After that they run riot until day break brutally assaulting passengers on their way to the steamboat, demolishing lamps, shooting through windows, etc., regardless of anything. They finally chased a man down to the Oneonta and attempted to go on board but were kept back by Purser Knapp. Several shots were fired miscellaneously when officer White appeared and the rioters were arrested. Their names are James Forrest and S. C. Knighton. The former an old San Francisco thief, and the latter a scion of his—being a mere boy—son of the late Captain Knighton, of Vancouver. A strong inclination was manifested throughout that day by the citizens to make examples of them, in a summary way, but better counsels prevailed, and they will undoubtedly serve the State of Oregon, in the capacity of convicts for a long term in this city where it is hoped at least the younger ones may come a realizing sense of his condition.

Additional Eastern News

WASHINGTON, March 7th.—The Senate ratified the treaties made with various tribes of Shoshone Indians for the protection of overland emigration and the security of the proposed Pacific Railroad and telegraph line and for the safety of miners.

Solicitor Whiting of the War Department, has sent a letter to the Committee on Public Lands relative to the Confiscation of Southern Lands. That Committee is in order stood, have prepared a bill, in accordance with Whiting's suggestion, to secure to persons in the military and naval service homesteads on the confiscated or forfeited estates in insurrectionary districts.

Richmond papers of March 1st and 2d admit that Kilpatrick penetrated to within three miles of the city, and add:

How narrowly General Lee escaped capture! General Wise also had a narrow escape."

Forty-six miles of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad were destroyed by Sherman. The Southern road was also destroyed from Meridian to Jackson. Eight hundred negroes were carried off.

Rebels accounts of the battle of Olustee (Florida) show that their force consisted of eleven regiments of infantry four battalions of cavalry and three batteries of artillery. Their loss was 800 killed and wounded.

The World's dispatch says: The recent statement that a general exchange of prisoners was about to be made is without foundation. It is supposed that General Grant will endeavor to have the former plans of the Administration modified, and present his own views respecting the conduct of military affairs.

Reports are in circulation of an extensive rebel raid on the Chesapeake. Three boats have been captured—one of them a side wheel steamer that has been running between Fortress Monroe and Cherrystone Inlet, the other two tugs employed between the same points. The party making the capture were in a schooner, which is supposed to have come out of the Rappahannock. The steamer was boarded robbed of $20,000 and then released.

A Norfolk letter dated March 6th, reports that Gen. Pickett's whole rebel division is at Suffolk, supposed to be on a grand foraging expedition and to inforce the conscription. Ransom's command which infested the line of the Albemarle and Chesapeake canal, has disappeared from there.

A special dispatch to the Commercial says Admiral Dupont is now in Washington, and is to appear before the Commission for investigating the attack on Charleston.

KNOXVILLE, March, 6th.—The county elections yesterday passed off quietly. The whole number of votes cast in Knoxville was 261 against an average vote in peace times of 700. Making allowance for the absentees in the army, the vote is larger than was anticipated. In the districts it was fuller. A hundred votes were polled in Sevier county, against a usual vote of a hundred and seventy. We have no report from the adjacent counties. The vote would have been much larger, but many undoubtedly loyal persons objected to taking the oath required by Governor Johnson as a condition of voting.

There is nothing new in army affairs except the capture at Chula Bayou mountain of sixty rebels by the Fourth Indiana Cavalry.

A brigade of rebel cavalry dashed into our lines to-day at Morey Creek, but were handsomely repulsed and we took a few prisoners.

The immediate emancipation ticket was carried in the city of Nashville, by 800 majority.

ST. LOUIS, March 7th.—Captain Hopkins well known here before the war as a river Captain, arrived from Mobile Feb 18th says Sherman's movements frightened the people. Every night between eighteen and forty five is a well drilled soldier. There is no doubt in the south that the people will accept peace on any terms. The leaders, however, are determined to fight to the last. There are four iron clad gunboats in Mobile bay. The Tennessee is the most formidable. Pemberton is on the shelf at Columbia, S. C. Price still commands the Missourians in Arkansas.

A New Orleans letter says: It is reported that 20,000 rebels are marching through Western Louisiana. Gen. Banks has sent a large cavalry and infantry force into the Teche country.

The naval attack on Mobile is said by the same correspondent to be a mere demonstration against the forts to prevent the rebels from sending assistance to Polk. It was rumored that two or two vessels were crippled and the fleet put out of range. The Calhoun is said to have been sunk.

Our troops are rapidly returning from Pass Cavalla, Texas. Those already arrived have gone to the Teche, where some 12,000 of our men are concentrated.

A Havana letter of March 1st says the gunboat De Soto is in the dry dock there. The blockade runners and successionists at Havana threatened to burn the vessel and also threatened the officers with violence. The Spanish authorities, however, have given the officers of the De Soto permission to wear their side arms, and they now visit the city fully armed.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 7th.—In the Senate, Conness of California, introduced a bill to amend the Act to aid the construction of the railroad from the Missouri river to the Pacific, passed July 1, 1862. Referred to the special Committee on the Pacific railroad.

Sherman of Ohio offered the following:

Resolved, That a quorum of the Senate shall consist of a majority of the Senators duly Chosen and qualified.

Resolved, That if a majority of the Presidential Electors duly appointed and qualified, vote for one person he is the President.

Resolved, That if the election of President devolves on the House of Representatives, and the vote of a majority of the States represented in the House be cast for one person, he is the President.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

A bill authorizing the President to negotiate a treaty with certain tribes in Oregon was passed.

In the House, a bill was introduced requiring all sailing and steam vessels between the United States and foreign countries to carry the mails for such reasonable compensation as may be deemed proper, and authorizing the Postmaster General to contract for four years carrying of mail matter, other than letters to the Pacific coast by sea etc.

European Intelligence.

The London Post's city article says: Reports from Paris reveal more positive than confidential negotiations are progressing between France and England for the joint recognition of the Southern Confederacy, or at England refuses, that France will act alone. The Post declines to vouch for these reports.

In the House of Commons Fitzgerald denounced the Government for the seizure of Laird's rams. He asserted that the act was in contravention of law. In moving for all the correspondence on the subject he said: I should deplore a war with America but rather than it should be that the laws of England should be infringed in consequence of the threats of Foreign Embassadors.

The Attorney General defended the course of the Government and explained their legal action.—Several speakers denounce the course of the Government and charged it with pusillanimity. Others replied. The motion was finally rejected by five majority, in favor of the Government.

The announcement of the vote was received with loud cheers from the Ministerial side.

An immense meeting held at Dublin to protest against the erection of the Albert memorial on College Green was broken up by rioters. A desperate fight took place but nothing serious resulted.

The particulars of the Prussian repulse at Duppel are confirming. One account says Gen. Steinmetz for the Prussians but the Prussian official account is the reverse, only admitting a loss of three killed and wounded.

It is asserted that England has proposed a conference on the Danish question on a new basis and that Austria and Prussia have assented. The Times regards this as a peaceful settlement.

It is asserted that the entente cordiale between France and England is no longer doubtful. The Emperor agrees to co-operate.

Hamburg telegrams say the Prussians had evacuated Jutland but the British papers say they remained in possession of Kalding, with orders not to advance beyond there. The Germans were busy destroying Dannel forts.

In an attack on the whole Danish line at Duppel Feb 23d the Dunes were first driven back, but afterwards reoccupied their former position.

The London Times strongly opposes interference by single handed and bitterly denounces the Powers that refused co-operation.

The Conference of French or German States adopted a strong resolution in opposition to Austro Prussian policy.

LATEST.—It is confirmed that Austria and Prussia agree to the conference in London, but they will not discuss nor in any way publish.

The Danish Minister of Foreign Affairs in a speech, distinctly says that he does not think the former state of things will be restored, but believes the Government renewed its efforts for the termination, by means of negotiation, of the conflict with Germany.

The Times thinks it probable that Spring will bring a revolution in Germany.

LINN COUNTY UNION CONVENTION.—The Convention met at the Court room in Albany, March 12th, 1864, at 12 o'clock, M.

Dr. Wm. Miller was chosen President, W. A. McPherson Secretary, G. F. Colbert, Assistant Secretary.

The committee on resolutions reported the following:

Resolved, That we fully endorse the measures of the National Administration to suppress the existing effort of rebellion, including especially the Emancipation Proclamation and the measure to Arm the Negro.

Resolved, That we do not approve of the course of Democratic members of Congress in opposing the measures of the Administration to prosecute the war, and we denounce the factious and Copperhead element of that party in the North as the real friends of the rebellion.

Resolved, That we have implicit confidence in the patriotism and ability of Abraham Lincoln, and we hereby nominate him for re-election to the office of President for the next four years.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the nomination of Andrew Johnson for Vice President.

On motion the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The following named gentlemen were presented and elected delegates to the State Convention: Dr. Wm. Miller, T. S. Kendall, S. T. Miller, O. W. Richardson, W. A. McPherson, W. F. Smith, G. F. Colbert, D. W. Ballard, W. R. Bishop, A. W. Waters, E. Trum, S. L. Jones.

Mr. J. C. Powell offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the event that Congress shall submit amendments to the Constitution of the United States forever abolishing slavery in all or any one of the Union to the several State Legislatures, that we are in favor of the Legislature of Oregon supporting such proposed amendment.

Which was lost.

On motion the President appointed a County Committee, consisting of John Conner, J. H. Foster and J. C. Powell.

On motion, the committee was instructed to call a County Convention on Thursday, March 31st, 1864.

On motion adjourned.

WM. MILLER, President.
W. A. MCPHERSON, Secretary.

UNION DELEGATE CONVENTION IN CLATSOP COUNTY.—The delegates from the different precincts in Clatsop County met at the Court House in Astoria, on Saturday, the 12th inst., and organized by declaring W. H. Gray, Chairman and P. W. Gillette, Secretary.

Wm. L. Adams was chosen as delegate to the Union State Convention to be held in Albany on the 30th of this month.

The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That our delegate be instructed to present the name of Jas. Taylor as our first choice for Presidential Elector, and to use his influence for his nomination.

The Convention proceeded to appoint a County Committee to act for the next two years, as follows: Wm. H. Gray, C. Olney, D. Ingalls, John West and F. Kitchum.

Resolved, That the proceeding of this Convention be published. Adjourned.

W. H. GRAY, Chairman.
P. W. GILLETTE, Secretary.

WHAT IS OUR TRUE POLICY?—This question doubtless often presents itself to the minds of citizens of our community, as they revolve in various propositions for the increase of the stores of wealth, but it evidently has not been, up to the present moment, answered in a manner calculated to result most advantageously both to private enterprise and to the public weal. While we would not, for the world, seek to deter any from investing in "real estate," who believe they see their fortune "just ahead," we submit that the investment of an amount of capital equal to the purchase of two or three steamers, for the establishment of a line of packets between Portland and San Francisco, would be the surest and most profitable of any speculation in which our monied men can engage. The want of such a line, built expressly for the trade, and owned, or at least controlled by its best patrons—the Portland merchants—has long been felt, and never more than now. In the past the exported products of Oregon have served simply to increase the wealth of foreign capitalists who have rewarded our liberality by providing transportation in uncertain and indifferent craft, oftentimes unfit, from their particular construction, for the navigation of our rivers, submitting shippers and passengers to frequent annoyances and detentions, by grounding where properly constructed vessels, of double their tonnage, should have passed unimpeded. These evils can not only be remedied but an immense advantage gained, by our people taking the matter in their own hands. We have the money, the enterprise, the intelligence, and all the other perquisites for the prosecution of such an undertaking if our fellow citizens would only put them to the work. The shipments to California and Victoria from this port, of fruit alone, has exceeded twelve hundred tons per month, and perhaps for some months reached nearer two thousand tons by steamers, while at times for the want of steamers, sailing vessels have been chartered to transport produce which should never be treated but as "fast freight" to the California market. It is fair to presume that our exports next harvest will exceed by at least two per cent those of last year, and if the drought continues as now apprehended in California, twenty five per cent will come nearer the mark. Our freights have paid for the old boats over and over again which have carried them, and the money which might have enriched our people, improved our city and contributed to the support of our local government, is safely stowed away in the pockets of those who have no interest in common with us, and whose "accommodation" boats are been at our "service" because they took from an immense profit on this route, which cannot compete with a better class of vessels or trades. If our merchants, by men would form an Ocean Steamship Company, and establish such plans as would enable them to put in the st

It is fair to presume that our exports next harvest will exceed by at least two per cent. those of last year; and if the drought continues as now appears to be certain in California, twenty-five per cent. will not be nearer the mark. Our freights have paid for the old boats over and over again which have carried them, and the money which might have enriched our people, improved our city, and contributed to the support of our local government, is safely stowed away in the pockets of those who have no interest in common with us, and whose "accommodation" boats have been at our "service" only as they would pay an immense profit on the same, while they could not compete with better class of vessels in other trades. If our merchants and wealthy men would form the Oregon Steamship Navigation Company, and start a subscription on such plan as would enable men of small means to take shares in the stock, we believe that a month would not elapse before a sufficient amount of capital to that would be taken to warrant an immediate commencement of two large, staunch, and fast steamers, better adapted to our rivers than any now afloat on the Pacific waters.

ACCIDENT TO DR. HAWTHORNE.—While a hired man was plowing some newly cleared ground for Drs. Hawthorne & Loryea, near the Insane Asylum, on the East side of the river, on Saturday afternoon, one of the horses attached to the plow became unmanageable, when Dr. Hawthorne went to the relief of the man. He had partially succeeded in pacifying the enraged horses, when the off one made a leap, knocked the Doctor down, and passed over his body, broke four ribs in the right breast. Dr. Chapman was immediately called, and did all that was possible for the Doctor, who at last accounts was doing as well as the severity of the case would admit. It is hoped that his injuries may not prove fatal.

QUARTZ MINES.—Wm. A. Daly, an old citizen of Portland, and late a printer in this office, leaves this morning on a trip to the quartz mines. He goes first to Pinerville, to understand the working of some quartz lodes there, and from thence will proceed to a newly discovered and very rich mining locality, far in the interior, from which he has received special information from personal friends. He promises to keep us posted with the results of his expedition, but has not as yet agreed to furnish us with the profits of the trip.

ARRIVAL OF THE COUCH.—The steamer John H. Couch, Capt. Holman, arrived about noon yesterday, bringing considerable freight and several passengers. The bark Alma had crossed inside the Bar, but was run aground before reaching Astoria. The tide was ebbing when she grounded, but it was thought she would be got off, with little damage, by the next swell. The bark Industry was to sail yesterday. The Ioanoiona was moored at St. Helens. Very high winds were prevailing on the river.

OREGON MINE.—By that we do not intend to be understood that our State is missed from the galaxy, nor our representatives from their seats in Congress; but that the "mist" so long complained of, has at length re-appeared, and copious showers have drowned the apprehensions of our citizens for a drought. People who had begun to limp from the effects of dry weather, yesterday rejoiced; they now expect to survive the warmth of the past week very comfortably, and vegetation will be materially aided.

FOREL WAY OF PACKING PORK.—As "contrary as a hog" was well exemplified on our streets yesterday, by a man who had tried, but tried in vain, to drive Mr. Porker to the wharf for a ride up the Columbia this morning. It would go any way but the right way, when finally the owner caught his hogship, and hitching his hind legs, got on a horse, and fastening the rope to the horn of the saddle, dragged the grunting to his destination. It was a comical sight.

MINERAL CABINET.—Messrs. Tracy & King have procured at great expense a show case of large proportions, in which to exhibit their valuable collection of minerals. The most attractive specimens are labelled: "Coal—from Kelly's lead;" "Coke—from Leonard & Green's lode;" "Soap Stone—from the same;" and other unique and attractive specimens.

THE CONCERT.—Our citizens should not forget the Concert this evening by the Presbyterian Choir. Notwithstanding the drawbacks and disappointments they have experienced carrying out their plans, they have been kindly tendered the use of the Methodist Church, by the Trustees of that building. From the programme and arrangements made for conducting it, this Concert bids fair to be a rare treat, and we trust will be liberally attended.

THEATRICAL.—Miss Fanny Morgan took the leading characters in "The Serious Family" and "Jessie Brown," on Saturday evening, owing to the illness of Mrs. Leighton. A very fair audience was in attendance, and the Company were all well up to their parts. "Love's Sacrifice" and the "Child of the Regiment," both capital plays, are offered for this evening.

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Portland:

GENTLEMEN: I herewith return to you a copy of the decision of the Circuit Court of this County in the case of S. M. SMITH et al vs. J. F. McCOY, COLLECTOR, AND THE CITY OF PORTLAND. Collector McCoy filed an answer for himself in the case, and by stipulation between the Attorneys for the plaintiffs and myself, his answer stands as the answer of the City, so that the judgment of the Court binds the City as well as the Collector.

The decision, as you will perceive, invalidates your ordinance levying a special tax, and originates the novel and somewhat startling doctrine that it is unlawful for the City to raise money to pay its honest debts. I say "novel doctrine," because former City Councils have, without objection on the part of their legal advisers or the tax-payers, acted under a contrary impression, and every special tax which has ever been levied and collected in this City has been so levied and collected for the specific purpose of paying the indebtedness of the City. The first ordinance of that kind was passed August 24, 1850, by a Common Council of which the present Judge of the Circuit Court was a member.

Section 2d of that Ordinance reads as follows: "That for the purpose of paying the "indebtedness of the City incurred the past "year, amounting to two thousand dollars, "one mill on the dollar be and the same is "hereby levied upon all the taxable property "in the City."

That ordinance was before the Council several weeks before it was put upon its final passage. Two weeks before it passed it was referred to a special committee, of which the Judge was chairman. I cannot find that the committee ever made any report whatever on the subject. Upon the evening of its passage the ordinance was called up upon motion of a member of that committee, and the vote upon its final passage was as follows: Yeas—Blanchard, Davidson, Hawthorne, Glenn, Lucas, Shelby, Vansyckle and Hallock—8; nays—0; absent—Shattuck. The absent member had been present during the early part of the evening, and it does not appear that he then or at any other time made any objection to the legality of the tax.

On the 26th of November, 1862, your immediate predecessors passed an ordinance for the levying and collection of taxes, section 3d of which read as follows: "That the Collector be and he is hereby authorized to collect, "on or before the first day of March, A. D. "1863, one mill upon all taxable property on "the assessment roll for the special purpose of "paying the indebtedness of the City," which ordinance was passed by the following vote: Yeas—Dennison, Hallock, Holmes, Silver and the President (Risley)—5; nays—0.

So that it appears from the records that the only ordinances that have ever been passed by the City of Portland, levying taxes for specific objects, have been passed unanimously, and for the purpose of paying the indebtedness of the City.

It may be that the construction the Circuit Court gives to the City Charter is correct, and that the citizens have unwittingly contracted the habit of paying illegal taxes. If so, it is much to be regretted that the chairman of that special committee in 1859 did not crush the error at its inception, and prevent the trouble and expense which has grown out of it.

The Court decides that the general tax, with the five per cent. penalty, cannot be collected under the present warrant to the Collector.

I would recommend that you have a new delinquent roll made out, embracing only the general tax with the penalty, and that a new warrant be issued to the Collector to collect that tax at the earliest moment practicable.

Very respectfully,
E. W. McGRAW, City Att'y.

Portland, March 16, 1864.

I certify the foregoing communication was received by the Board of Common Council of the City of Portland on the 16th day of March, A. D. 1864, read and ordered published.

DETTER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE
FOR BALD HEADS.
IT IS NOT MY INTENTION TO HUMBUG THE PUBLIC. This Restorative has built up a world-wide reputation upon its own merits, as is considered by those who have used it, to be the best article ever invented for the Hair. Read the following certificate:
Lawrence, Sept. 3d, 1863.
This is to certify that I have used DETTER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient preparation for the restoration of the Hair. I was nearly bald when I commenced the use of it, and after using two bottles, I find it has produced a fine, healthy growth of hair, and that, too, in less than two months. I can heartily recommend it for its great virtues and efficiency. S. D. HANSELL,

Hunting a Testimonial.

"Doctor," said a man with a thin, sallow countenance, pale lips, and leaden eyes, coming up to the counter of a drug store in Baltimore, some years ago—"Doctor, I've been reading your advertisement about the Universal Restorer and Balsam of Life," and if that Mr. John Johnson's testimony is to be relied on, it ought to suit my case, for, in describing his own sufferings, he has exactly described mine. But I've spent so much money on medicine to no purpose, that I am tired of being humbugged, so if you'll just tell me where I can find this Mr. Johnson, I'll give him a call. I'd like to know if he's a real flesh and blood man."

"You don't mean to insinuate that I'd forge a testimonial?" replied the man of medicine with some slight show of indignation.

"Oh, no. I don't insinuate anything at all doctor," answered the pale looking man, "But I'd like to see this Mr. Johnson, and have a little talk with him."

"You can do that, if you'll take the trouble to call on him," said the doctor, in an off-hand way.

"Where can I find him?" asked the man.

"He lives a little way out of town, about three miles on the Frederick turnpike."

"Ah? So far?"

"Yes. Go out till you come to the three mile stone; then keep on to the first road turning off to the right, along which you will go about a quarter of a mile, when you will see a brick house. Mr. Johnson lives there."

The thin, sallow-faced man bowed and retired. As he left the store, the doctor gave a low chuckle, and then said half aloud—

"I guess he won't try to find this Mr. John Johnson."

But he was mistaken. Three hours afterwards the sick man entered the shop, and sinking upon a chair, with an expression of weariness, said in a fretful tone—

"Well, doctor, I've been out where you said, but no Mr. John Johnson lives there."

"Mr. Johnson lives at the place to which I directed you," said the doctor, positively.

But the man shook his head.

"You went out the Frederick road to the three mile stone?"

"Yes."

"And turned off on the first road on the left hand side?"

"You told me the right hand side!" said the man.

"Oh! There's the mistake," replied the doctor, with the air of a man who had just discovered a very material error, by which an important result was affected. "I told you to turn off to the left."

"I'm sure you said the right," persisted the man.

"Impossible" returned the doctor, in a most confident tone of voice. "How could I have said the right hand side, when I know it was the left. I know Mr. Johnson as well as I know my own brother, and have been at his house hundreds of times."

"I am almost sure you said right!" persisted the man.

"Oh, no! You misunderstood me," most positively answered the doctor.

"Well, I must only try it again," said the man languidly. "But I shall defer the walk until to-morrow, for I'm completely worn down."

"You'd better try a bottle of the Restorer" said the doctor, with a benevolent smile. "I know that it will just suit your case. Mr. Johnson looked worse than you do when he commenced taking it, and three bottles made a well man of him."

And the doctor held up a bottle of the Restorer, with its handsome label, temptingly before the sick man's eyes, adding, as he did so—

"It is only fifty cents."

"I've been humbugged too often!" replied the suspicious patron of patent medicine venders. "No; I'll see Mr. Johnson first!"

"Well; did you see Mr. Johnson?" asked the doctor, with a pleasant smile and confident air, as the testimonial hunter entered his shop on the next day, about noon.

"No, I did not;" was replied, a little impatiently.

"Ah! How comes that? Did you follow the directions I gave!"

"Yes, to the very letter."

"Then you must have found Mr. Johnson."

"But I tell you I didn't."

"It is very strange! I can't understand it. You turned off at the first road to the left, after passing the third mile stone?"

"I did."

"Two tall poplars stood at the gate which opened from the turnpike?"

"What gate?"

"The gate opening to the lane leading to Mr. Johnson's house."

"I did not turn off at any gate," said the man. "I kept on, as you directed, to the first road that led off from the turnpike. You didn't mention anything about a gate."

"I didn't suppose it necessary," replied the doctor, with a shadow of impatience. A road is a road, whether you enter it by a gate or in any other manner. Roads leading to gentlemen's country seats are not usually left open for every sort of ingress and egress. I don't wonder that you were unable to find Mr. Johnson."

"I wish you would give me more particular directions," said the invalid. "I'm nearly dead now with fatigue; I'll try once more to find this man, and if I don't turn him up, I'll let the matter drop. I don't believe your medicine will do me much good, any how."

"I'm sure it will help you," replied the doctor. "I can tell by your very countenance that it is what you want. Hundreds, affected as you are, have been restored to health. Better take a bottle."

"I want to see this Mr. Johnson, first," persisted the sick man.

"Get a carriage, then. This walking in the hot sun is too much for you."

"Can't afford to ride in carriages. Have spent all my money in doctor's stuff. Oh, dear! Well! You say this man lives just beyond the three mile stone, at the first road leading off to the left?"

"Yes."

"Two poplars stand at the gate?"

"Yes."

"I ought to find that," said the man.

"You can find it if you try," returned the doctor.

The man started off again.

"Plague on the persevering fellow!" muttered the man of drugs, as soon as the invalid retired. "I wish I had sent him six miles instead of three."

The day wore on but the Testimonial Hunter did not re-appear. Early on the next morning, however, his pale, thin face, and emaciated brow were visible in the shop of the quack doctor.

"Ah! good morning! good morning!" cried the latter with one of the most assured and pleasant smiles in the world.

"You found Mr. Johnson, of course?"

"Confound you and Mr. Johnson, too! No!" replied the invalid, impatiently.

The doctor was a man of great self-control, and, of course, did not in the least become offended.

"Strange!" said he seriously. "You surely didn't follow my directions."

"I surely did. The first gate on the left hand side. But your two tall poplars was one tall elm."

"There it is again!" and the doctor, in the fullness of his surprise, actually let a small package that he held in his hand, fall upon the counter. "I told you poplars distinctly. The elm tree gate is at least a quarter of a mile this side." But to settle the matter at once," and the doctor, speaking like a man who was about doing a desperate thing, turned to his shelves, and took therefrom a bottle of the Universal Restorer—"here's the medicine. I know it will cure you. Take a bottle. It shall cost you nothing."

"I don't want your stuff for nothing. But a half dollar won't kill me."

So he drew a coin from his pocket, laid it on the counter, and taking the medicine, went slowly away.

"Rather a hard customer, that," said the doctor to himself, with a chuckle, as he slipped the money in the drawer. "But I'll take good care to send the next one like him a little further on his fool's errand. He'd much better have taken my word for it in the beginning!"

The sick man never came back for a second bottle of the "Restorer." Whether the first bottle killed or cured him, as to the chronicler unknown.

NATURE COULD NOT BE CHEATED.—A certain king had a son born to him. The astrologers predicted that he would lose his sight if he were permitted to see either sun or woman before he had reached the age of ten years; on which account the king had him watched and brought up in dark caverns. After ten years had elapsed, he caused him to be brought out and showed him the world, and placed before him many fine jewels and fair damsels—telling him the names of everything, and that the damsels were demons.

Being asked what he liked the best, he replied: "The demons please me more than all the rest." The king then marvelled greatly, saying: "What a powerful thing is female beauty!"

THE PENSION LIST EXTENDED.—By a recent regulation of the Pension Office, many mothers of deceased soldiers are now entitled to pensions who were not previously. Under the original regulations, a mother was required to prove her marriage, and only widowed mothers were entitled to pensions, while under the present regulations, any mother of a deceased officer or soldier, if she was dependent wholly or in part on her deceased son for support, is entitled to a pension, whether her husband be living or not, and it is not necessary for a mother to prove her marriage.

AN IRISH IDEA OF A FIDDLE.—Paddy's description of a fiddle cannot be beat: "It was the shape of a turkey, and the size of a goose; he turned it over on its back and rubbed its belly with a stick, and och! St. Patrick! how it did squeak!"

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach,

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1858.

DR. J. C. AYER, SIR: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they clear at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect,
ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Canton.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,

ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, Me. Co., Mich., Nov. 16, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Was afraid to be doctoring at great expense, but got no better. She commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They also cured our two children of bloody dysentery. Our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured them with your Pills. Some of them, while others around us died from the use of other medicines. I sold Pills, and lost much time, without knowing what ailed me then. Such a medicine as yours will be hailed with joy and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. [illegible]
